Scripture says you should put aside childish things when you grow up. I take that to mean willfulness, self-centeredness, and things like that – not imagination, creativity, and joyful curiosity.
Dick Van Dyke in his memoir "Keep Moving"

Someone asked me the other day, "Do you stare at your trophies when you walk in your house?" Actually no... If you're always looking behind you, you're never going to see the competition ahead.
Serena Williams in "Fast Company"

I don't think there is any book that can't teach you something, even if it's how not to tell a story.
Mary Higgins Clark in "By the Book"

Always.....Do sober what you said you'd do drunk. That will teach you to keep your mouth shut.
Ernest Hemingway
(Actually better not to do "drunk" anyway ☺ – editor)

From the police blotter, or what a beat cop deals with every day (from uniformstories.com)

- A deputy responded to a report of a vehicle stopping at mail boxes – it was the mail carrier
- A woman said her son was attacked by a cat and the cat would not allow her to take her son to the hospital.
- A resident said someone had entered his home at night and taken five pounds of bacon. Upon further investigation, police discovered his wife had gotten up for a late night snack. (Five pounds of bacon is a "snack"??)
- A man reported that a squirrel was running in circles on Davis Drive and he wasn't sure if it was sick or had been hit by a car. An officer responded, and as he drove on the street, he ran over the squirrel.

All above from the Reader's Digest, July/August, 2016
